HORSES OF THE PAST

ENGLAND'S GREAT CHALK WHITE HORSES

By Mrs. Steven Fischer

The meeting was called to order by our President, Jerry Schromm. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Treasurer, Sylvia Fischer, who substituted for our Secretary, Barbara Sailor.

Ride Chairman, Rosemary Lehman, announced that the overnight ride was postponed until the weekend of Aug. 15 & 16 so as not to conflict with the Pescadero Rodeo. She has a wonderful program lined up and encouraged members to get their reservations in early.

It was announced that there is a movement on to eliminate the stables and trails in the north end of the County. A special meeting is to be held at Colombo Hall Colma on Thursday evening, Aug. 13, 1953, at 8 p.m. and members were asked to attend on behalf of the horsemen in that area.

President Schromm thanked Ross and Ruth Meredith for the use of their Woodside Stables for this outdoor dinner meeting.

The meeting was adjourned early so that Mr. Reuben Albaugh of Davis could proceed with his interesting talk on the conformation and unsoundness of the horse. Muriel Schromm in charge of the entertainment for the August meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Sylvia Fischer, Acting Secretary

For centuries there has been a great deal of discussion over the great chalk white horses which appear in some sections of England. One of these appears on a Hillside near Westbury. Some believe this one was carved in 879 to commemorate Alfreds' victory over the Danes at Ethandune. This version, however, is open to doubt.

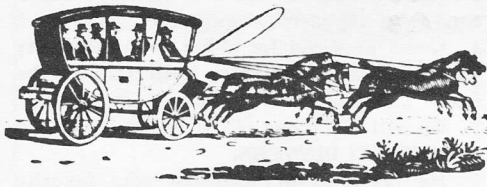

In the South Country there are other chalk carvings on hillsides, all are centuries old.

These downs, so peaceful and empty today, were the center of a thriving population in prehistoric times. Many remains of their fortifications and encampments may still be seen. There are six more White Horses in Wiltshire around the Westbury area.

The White Horse at Uffington is another figure which people have wondered about for centuries. This is so stylized as to appear modern in origin, yet it is cited as a Berkshire landmark in the annals of Abington Abbey as early as the eleventh century. This section is called the Vale of the White Horse.

Margie Sherman, State Chairman, Junior Co-ordinating Committee; Marie Kemm; Walter Kampfdn, Chairman Regional Eliminations; Polly Weston; Rosemary Lehman.

THE HORSEY SET

Mrs. Stephen Fischer

The July dinner meeting held at the Woodside Stables was well attended, almost 150 delicious dinners were served by Eddie and his crew, and many other members arrived in time to hear the excellent talk on conformation and unsoundnesses of the horse by Mr. Reuben Albaugh of the University of Calif. at Davis. I am sure all present felt they had learned a good deal about horses. This meeting was chaired by Sylvia Fischer who did an excellent job. Thanks to Ross Meredith for the use of the grounds and Fred Kemm for the P. A. system.

Many of our members are planning to compete in the Stanford Convalescent Home Horse Show at the Menlo Circus Club in Atherton, Saturday, August 22. Afternoon Show and Evening Show to be judged by Mr. Curtis P. Nelson, of Galt (Hunter, Jumper Polo, Hunter Seat Equitation. Mr. Kent Weaver, Concord, (Western Division), Mr. William Rowan of San Diego, Hackney - Saddle Seat Equitation, Arab, and Tennessee Walkers. There will also be a "Tally Ho" Party which sounds like fun for all.

There is a great deal of activity at the Hunt Stable these days with new horses coming in all the time. We welcome the new members to S. M. Co. Horsemen stabling their horses at Hunts.

Be sure to attend the August meeting when you will be shown an excellent movie provided by the Standard Oil Co., and entitled "Idaho Wonderland". Mrs. Muriel Schromm, who is chairman, asks that everyone please be present by 8:15 so we can get going and have the evening over early for people who want to get home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burt Sr., Mrs. Stephen Fischer, Sylvia Fischer and Howard Burt Jr. attended the ride of the Almaden Range Riders from George Silvas Almaden Ranch to the Guadalupe area where a grand steak dinner was served at the Green Canyon Ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Le Deit. A fine clubhouse with bar and swimming pool, billiard table, etc., supplied activities for all. The ride back was wild and rugged and it is suggested that the Almaden group should be called the Almaden Rough Riders. Eleanor Felvey was ride chairman.

Russell Lehman is riding some colts for Mr. Olson at his San Carlos Stables.

Sandra Olson had an enjoyable visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

The Pink Horse Ranch is sponsoring an open Horse Show to be presented on their grounds on Moody Road August 30. Dick Barelllo is Horse Show Manager and the events will be judged by Sylvia Fischer.

Mrs. Virginia Seigfried and Mrs. Davis Olson spent an enjoyable weeks vacation at Alisal Dude Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Creed Haberlin and Children spent part of their vacation at the "Big Sur" which is a beautiful rugged area South of Monterey.

JUNIOR ROUND UP

by Joan Ramsay

What happened to all the juniors on the day ride? Only the following six members attended - Oril Wunderlich, Sharon Defty, Linda Steel, Carol Ramsay, and Leigh and Charles Wheeler. The chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bryn, Miss Sylvia Fischer, Mr. Howard Burke, Mrs. Rosemary Lehman, and Mr. George Sigfried had so kindly given up their day, and were bitterly disappointed at the lack of attendance. Lets make our next project extra large to make up for the day ride.

At the Santa Clara junior Horseman's Show on the 26th of August, Oril Wunderlich placed first in the Halter class with her mare Candy Mint, also she took second in her Horsemanship class. At the same show Carol Ramsay placed first in the younger equitation class, second in pleasure, and fourth in the stock horse class, also tying for High Point honors. Ann Ramsay captured fourth in pleasure class. Mary Marthens took first in English Equitation 20 and under giving an outstanding performance. Rush Faville won fourth in train horse.

Bruce Howard, Nancy Pennington, Sharon Greer, Cynthia Hecht, Sally Guild, and Sandra Minto also made a wonderful showing, but did not place.

Paul Greunig received a trophy for the best dressed cowboy at the 4th of July parade. Nuggy Olsen placed first in the pole bending event two days of the rodeo.

Bruce Howard won the Horsemastership trophy on the competitive trail ride. Good work Bruce.

Debby Blain captured fourth in Stock horse at the Salinas Rodeo and she was the only one placing from this part of the country.

At the Pescadero Rodeo Nuggie Olsen placed second in Stock Horse and Betty Purvis took fifth in the same class.

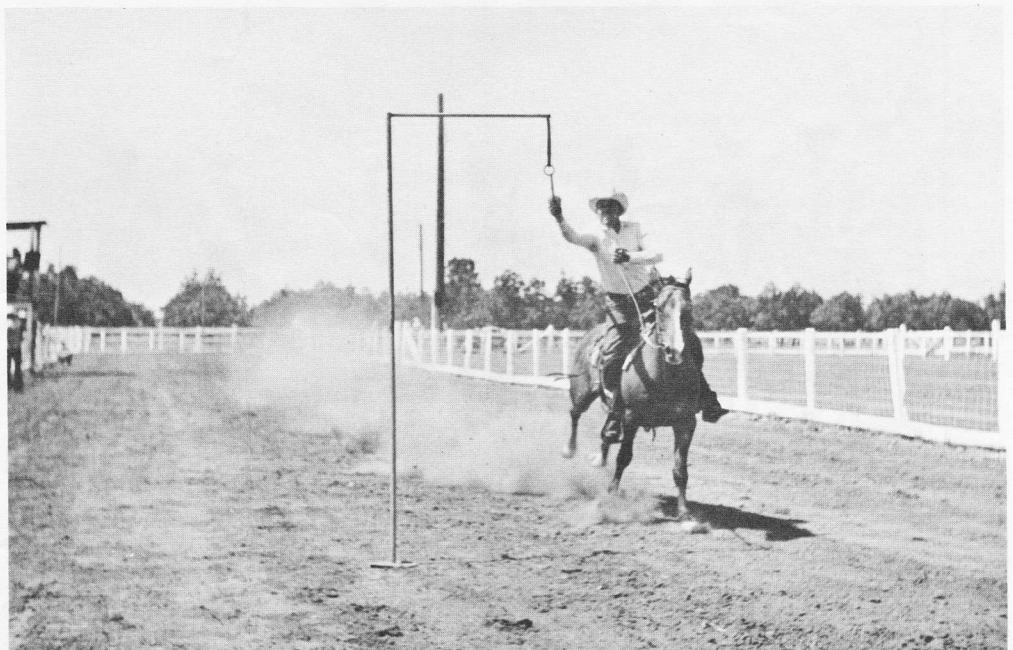

Elly Banks and Bitty Britton have both acquired new pinto horses.

Oril Wunderlich has a new sorrell mare. She is still in the Hackamore, and Oril is planning to finish her. Good Luck with your new horses.

Lets try very hard to have a big turnout at the Stanford Convalescent Show and at our Junior Show the next day.

WANTED - A pair of working chaps in good condition. Dawn Smith, Diamond 4-2880.

Al Cryer stretching for a ring.

Ross Meredith on "Ibn Ghayi" took 5th in Professional Class Western Pleasure and 2nd in Costume Class for mares and geldings.

Ellie Peterson took 4th in Trail Class on Naufalis and 2nd with Takris and foal in Mare and Foal class and the beautiful Stallion Gharizeyd, owned by Ellie and Ross Peterson took third in a fine class of 40 Stallions which is high honor for any horse.

Elaine Harwoods filly (2 year old Tane-yah) took 5th in her class and 2nd in get of Sire class, her sire being Witez II of Calabascas, Calif. Her mare Gayna took 5th in Get of Sire her, sire Gayr is owned by Steve Bonovich of Vacaville.

Warren Jones rode his beautiful Arabian in the Prologue. This animal had its leg broken a couple of years back and proves this sort of accident is not necessarily fatal.
